

Sexual Misconduct Campus Climate Survey

INTRODUCTION

Our University is dedicated to fostering a caring and safe community. Every student has a right to an education that is free from discrimination, and Penn State is committed to ensuring that all students have the opportunity to fully benefit from the University's programs and activities. Sexual violence, sexual harassment, stalking, and intimate partner violence can interfere with a student's academic performance and emotional and physical well-being. Preventing and remedying sexual misconduct at Penn State are essential to ensuring a safe environment in which our students can learn.

You have been selected to give important information to Penn State about your experiences since you have enrolled. The overall goal of the survey is to determine the prevalence of and response to sexual misconduct on campus.

Your voice is extremely important, and we want you to feel comfortable in answering these questions freely and honestly. Your anonymity is a priority, and any information that you share on this survey cannot be identified. As this survey is administered through a third party, there is no way for Penn State to access your IP address or link your survey to your name, student ID, or email address.

Students who complete the survey will be entered in a random drawing for one of 16 $75 gift cards, 32 $50 gift cards, 40 $25 gift cards, or 80 $10 gift cards to either Amazon or Walmart.

Thank you so much for your time, and we look forward to better understanding your experiences here at Penn State.

If you or someone you know is in need of resources regarding sexual misconduct at Penn State, please visit the Office of Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response webpage and click on your campus.

Questions regarding the survey should be directed to Adam Christensen, director of Student Affairs Research and Assessment, at saraoffice@psu.edu or 814-863-1809.

MODULE 15: CONSENT

Q137 Using the scales provided, please indicate your level of agreement with the following statements.

	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly agree
Typically, I communicate sexual consent to my partner using nonverbal signals and body language.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Typically, it is easy to accurately read my partner's nonverbal signals as indicating consent to sexual activity.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Typically, I ask for consent by making a sexual advance and waiting for a reaction, so I know whether or not to continue.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I don't have to ask or give my partner sexual consent because I have a lot of trust in my partner to "do the right thing."	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I always verbally ask for consent before I initiate a sexual encounter.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

If a person initiates sex but during foreplay says they no longer want to, the person has not given consent to continue.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
If a person doesn't physically resist sex, they have given consent.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Consent for sex one time is consent for future sex.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
If you and your sexual partner are both drunk, you don't have to worry about consent.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Mixed signals can sometimes mean consent.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
If someone invites you to their place, they are giving consent for sex.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
